
Forum Promotion

Posted by Stephen - 2008/05/20 19:59

To encourage you guys to use this forum and post here, either by asking questions or answering them I have decided to have a forum rank system based on the number of posts,

What will happen automatically now is that when you hit a certain number of posts, your Forum rank will rise, in this order

1 Post - White Belt
10 Posts - Yellow Belt
20 Posts - Orange Belt
40 Posts - Green Belt
80 Posts - Blue Belt
160 Posts - Brown Belt
320 Posts - Black Belt (1st Dan)
640 Posts - Black Belt (2nd Dan)
1280 Posts - Black Belt (3rd Dan)
2000 Posts - Black Belt (4th Dan)
2500 Posts - Black Belt (5th Dan)
3500 Posts - Red/White Belt (6th Dan)
4000 Posts - Red/White Belt (7th Dan)
5000 Posts - Red/White Belt (8th Dan)
7500 Posts - Red Belt (9th Dan)
10000 Posts - Red Belt (10th Dan)

So get your fingers working and get posting on here and start to see your forum rank rise.

Hi Mongo,

The forum promotion is something that will encourage many to post, The Dan grades visiting the Forum that I know 100% to be dan grades will be graded an honorary yudansha rank.
